

Gilbert Declerck Member of the Board of imec International

Gilbert J. Declerck was born in Oostende, Belgium in 1946. He received the Ph.D. degree in Electrical Engineering from the University of Leuven in 1972. From 1973 to 1974 he spent one year at the IC laboratories of the Stanford University. He then joined the Leuven University in 1974, where he became Professor in 1983. In 1984 he moved to imec in Leuven, Belgium, as Vice President of the Advanced Semiconductor Processing Division. He authored and co-authored over 200 papers and conference contributions. In 1993 Dr. Declerck was elected fellow of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers for leadership and contributions to Metal-Oxide-Semiconductor device physics, Charge Coupled Device technology and Very Large Scale Integration processing techniques. In 1998 Dr. Declerck was appointed as Chief Operating Officer of imec and from June 1999 till July 2009 he was President and CEO of imec. From July 2009 till January 2012 he was Executive Officer and Member of the Board of imec International. As of January 2012 he is acting as independent advisor and remains Member of the Board of imec International. Dr. Declerck is also member of several advisory boards of scientific institutes and companies